

File-Aid Batch

Course Summary

Description

This course introduces students to the features and functions the File-Aid product in a batch environment. They will learn how to perform routine file maintenance tasks as well as those requiring manipulation, copying and printing.

Topics

- Introduction
- File-Aid Functions
- Other Topics

Audience

This course is designed for students who need to learn the basic functions of File-Aid.

Prerequisites

Students should have a familiarity with TSO/ISPF.

Duration

One day

File-Aid Batch

Course Outline

I. Introduction

- A. Overview
- B. Setting up File-Aid JCL

II. File-Aid Functions

- A. Drop
- B. Copy
- C. Dump
- D. Fprint
- E. List
- F. Print
- G. Reformat
- H. Space
- I. Tally
- J. Update
- K. User

III. Other Topics

- A. Working with data formats
- B. Packed
- C. Hex
- D. Binary
- E. Vsam Files
- F. DD statements
- G. Selection Criteria
- H. Printing
- I. Reformatting using COBOL layouts