

Designing Queries and Reports for Hyperion

Course Summary

Description

This two-day course is designed to teach business analysts, report developers and end-users the essentials of query and report building using Hyperion Interactive Reporting. We will utilize course manuals and resources that have been specifically designed for the version you are using.

Topics

- Learn about Interactive Reporting, including Interactive Reporting Studio and Web Client and EPM Workspace architecture and features
- Access and work with pre-built queries and reports
- Create queries using Interactive Reporting
- Manipulate query results and generate tabular reports
- Develop pivot table, chart and band-style reports Analyze data using pivot tables and charts
- Create computed items
- Build data models
- Prepare documents and reports for distribution

Audience

This course is ideal for end-users, business analysts, and report developers.

Prerequisites

There are no prerequisites for this class.

Duration

Two days