Oracle 12c Enterprise Manager Cloud Control

Course Summary

Description

This Oracle 12c: Enterprise Manager Cloud Control course provides you with a detailed look at one of Oracle's newest products, 12c Cloud control. In this course, you will look at the new features within Cloud Control, and learn to identify Cloud Targets, set up notification schedules and help create reports within the Cloud. You will also learn how to install and configure Oracle Enterprise Manager 12c Cloud Control, configure Cloud systems and services, create notification schedules and incident reports, and discover the new features of 12c Cloud control such as new Cloud targets as well as pluggable and container databases.

Oracle Enterprise Manager is Oracle's integrated enterprise IT management product line, which provides a complete, integrated and business-driven enterprise cloud management solution. It creates business value from IT by leveraging the built-in management capabilities of the Oracle stack for traditional and cloud environments, allowing customers to achieve unprecedented efficiency gains while dramatically increasing service levels. It is expected to reduce downtime by up to 90% improve staff productivity by up to 75%, reduce capital expenditures on servers by 20% or more and increase IT agility while lowering the cost of managing IT by an order of magnitude.

Topics

- Install Oracle 12c Cloud Control
- Create Cloud Control Groups
- Configure Oracle Cloud Control

- Create Cloud Notification Schedules
- Create Cloud Incidents
- Set up Cloud Systems and Cloud Services

Audience

This course is appropriate for anyone needing to learn key features of Cloud Control Computing. It is suitable for Database Administrator, Network Administrators, System Administrators and Developers.

Prerequisites

Familiarity with Oracle computing or IT infrastructure is desired.

Duration

Three days